Sundays at 3 PM

Sept. 23 Faith & The Public Square

How does our faith manifest outside the church's four walls

The Very Rev. Robert Nelson Smith is dean and president/CEO of Saint Francis Ministries. Founded in 1945, Saint Francis Ministries provides services to more than 30,000 children and families in Kansas, Mississippi, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Texas, Illinois, El Salvador, and Honduras through a broad range of programs, services, and advocacy efforts. Fr. Smith is a graduate of Nashotah House Theological Seminary. He has nearly 20 years of healthcare administrative experience. Prior to that, he worked on Capitol Hill where his focus was on environmental, transportation, and infrastructure issues critical to rural communities.

Sept. 30 Faith & Language

How does language influence our understanding of scripture and faith

The Rev. Bob and Joyce Carlson were active St. Mary's parishioners before taking the call to do missionary work in Africa. Currently assigned to Africa International University in Karen, Kenya, Bob is Head of the Department of Languages, Linguistics and Translation, working mainly with MA and PhD students. Joyce is an editor, helping students with their dissertations and other documents they are writing in English.

Oct. 7 Faith & Science

Tentative Conclusions from a Christian Physician-Scientist about Life's Great Questions

Dr. Paul Lange is Professor Emeritus of the Department of Urology at University of Washington. Dr. Lange has served on many editorial and administrative boards, including the New England Journal of Medicine. Dr. Lange is internationally recognized for his clinical and research work in a variety of genitourinary cancers. Of particular note, he helped develop serum markers for testis (AFP, HCG) and prostate (PSA) cancers. He is the author of over 400 scientific papers and 3 books.
